

TECHNICAL SEMINAR ON DATA MINING

Department of BCA organized a technical seminar on the topic Data Mining on 21-07-16. The session was handled by Ms. Keerthi R, who has worked in the data analysis field. The session started with introduction to data mining which was followed by its classifications and different algorithms for analysis. The resource person also highlighted on the application areas of data mining and the relevance of it in today's context.

