Structure of the council

To be able to work together, International student council has created an organizational structure, which facilitates the flow of ideas and enables the development of activities.

Council composed of International students' Association from 27 different countries, under Krupanidhi International Students Council (KISC). All the activities of KISC are organized by the international students of KISC.

Enrolment:

The international students has to enrol for the KISC with the nominal enrolment fee to be a member of the council, however new students has to pay the enrolment fees during the admission process.

Only Enrolled students have all the right to solve their issues through council and also participate in any of the events organised by KISC

Serve as a positive example

One of the most important duties of a International Student Council member is to serve as an example for members of the student body. Members are usually required to be in good standing in their classes and they must strive to avoid behavioural issues during and after college hours. Generally, they are expected to be helpful, courteous, and positive during college hours.

Provide an open forum

A major duty of student council members is to provide a forum where other students can raise problems and questions about their issues/problems and act as a liaison between the student body and faculty or administration. If a student raises an issue with the student council, members are responsible for discussing the issue, making a recommendation, and bringing the problem and potential solutions to the Management committee.

Organize events

The student council is often responsible for organizing events that promote college spirit and leadership, such as pep rallies, cultural events, intercollegiate competitions, cultural extravaganza of various countries conferences, workshops etc., or college carnivals etc., They must choose a date, find a location, and secure funding. For the event, they must recruit volunteers, set up the area, and run the event, ensuring that everything goes as planned and dealing with problems as they crop up. All such activities must be approved by the management committee.

Service

Members of a student council often participate in service projects. They might volunteer at a local community clean-up, sponsor organization beautification efforts, or organize a food drive at college. It is up to council members to identify the area where they can be of most help and to form a plan to serve other members of the community.

Fundraising

International student councils have the responsibility of raising funds for council activities. During meetings, council members will brainstorm ideas for different fundraisers.

The Student Council and the committee

1. A committee shall establish and maintain procedures for the purpose of informing students in organization of the activities.
2. A committee in organization shall encourage and help students to set up a Student Council and shall assist a Student Council when established.
3. A committee shall draw up rules for the establishment of a Student Council which shall provide for the election of members and the dissolution of a Council. The rules should be in line with the guidelines issued by the management committee.
4. Finally, a Board will have a role in considering the rules governing meetings of the Student Council, and the conduct of its affairs.

Key functions of Student Councils

The functions and activities of a Student Council should support the aims and objectives of the Council and promote the development of the organization and the welfare of its students. In planning and undertaking activities during the course of the academic year.

There is a wide range of activities of benefit to the organization community which a Student Council may wish to undertake, some of which are outlined below:

Representing the views of the student body to the management

It involves talking and listening to the student body, considering their views and concerns, and discussing these with the management on behalf of the students.

Promoting good communications within the organization

Improving communication within the organization is a shared responsibility and a Student Council can contribute to this process. Making presentations at management committee meetings to keep informed of activities, keeping a Student Council notice-board or organizing a regular newsletter are just some ways the Council can communicate with the students of Krupanidhi Group of Institutions, management and staff.

Supporting the educational development and progress of students

A Student Council can contribute to the learning environment for students in the organization by, setting up study groups for students helping them to pass the subject/course or various academic and non academic clubs, or organizing activities, such as language clubs.

Assisting with induction and/or mentoring for new first year students

Starting any degree course is a challenging new experience for 1st Year students. A mentoring program where senior students help new students to find their feet which can help their integration into the organization community.

Assisting in sports and cultural activities

Student Councils can assist in organizing and developing sports and cultural activities within the college/intercollegiate, including, for example, sports days and drama or musical events.

Assisting with or organizing fund-raising events

Student Councils can organize events both within the organization and involving the wider community, for the purposes of raising funds for council activities.

Work of the student council

The Student Council as a whole has responsibility for:

- Working with the staff, Board of Management/committee in the organization
- Communicating and consulting with all of the students in the organization
- Involving as many students as possible in the activities of the Council
- Planning and managing the Council's program of activities for the year
- Managing and accounting for any funds raised by the Council

Planning and Managing the Work

While the Student Council members all have a part to play in the activities of the Council, not all can or need to be involved in organizing the work. It is for this reason that the Council should appoint officers. It may also decide to establish subcommittees.

The role of the Officers

President

The president is responsible for presiding over meetings of the Council. The president, with the Secretary, prepares the agenda for each meeting and, where necessary, signs the minutes.

Secretary

The Secretary, with the president, prepares the agenda for each meeting and the Secretary then circulates it to all the members of the Council either in advance of the meeting or at the start of the meeting. This will involve consulting with the other Council officers in order to decide what will be included on the agenda. All agendas should include a provision for 'Any other '; this allows Council members to raise a matter for discussion in the event that it has not been included on the agenda. The Secretary also keeps a record of Council meetings and any decisions taken by the Council (the minutes). If necessary these minutes can be circulated to all members of the Council either with the agenda for the next meeting or at the start of the next meeting. The Council can be given the opportunity to make any changes to the minutes before they are signed by the president.

Treasurer

The Treasurer is responsible for managing any funds raised by the Student Council and should keep a complete account of all income and expenditure of the Council. Advice and assistance in this regard may be provided by management committee. The Treasurer should provide the Council with a complete financial report at the end of the year. As a general rule any payments made by the Treasurer should be countersigned or endorsed by another member of the Council and management committee.
